The National Digital Newspaper Program (NDNP) is a partnership between the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) and the Library of Congress (LC). It builds on the United States Newspaper Program (USNP) by creating digital page images of historic newspapers (pre-1923) using a microfilm-to-digital methodology. NDNP's twenty year mission is to fund and make available online historic newspapers from all fifty U.S. States and its territories. Kentucky's NDNP content can be found at Library of Congress' Chronicling America and the Kentucky Digital Library (KDL). The Kentucky Edition has been a contributor to NDNP since its inception in 2005.

The Kentucky Vindicator

"THE SALOON MUST GO"
"THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC CANNOT BE LICENSED WITHOUT SIN."

VOL. II. NO. 24.

OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1901.

25 CTS. PER YEAR.

PROHIBITION NATIONAL CONFERENCE.

It is very important that a full delegation of Prohibitionists from Kentucky attend the National Prohibition conference to be held at Buffalo August 1 and 2. Many of us will be going to the Pan-American exposition, and can choose this time as well as any other to make the trip. The railroad fare is so small that to fail to go and take in the great exposition and the Niagara Falls and the conference, all on the same trip, would be a mistake no Prohibitionist can well afford to make.

Remember we have been spending no money for liquor, and most of us have saved that big bill, and consequently have a little left for such pleasure trips as this one will be, and at the same time an educational one.

All who intend to go will please write the editor of this paper at once and he will make all necessary arrangements for their comfort and pleasure. The plan is to leave Louisville Tuesday morning, July 30, and go to Cincinnati, meeting other Prohibitionists there and on through to Buffalo.

Later arrangements will be made, but the above is an outline. If you are contemplating going do not fail to write us. Let us all go in a body. It will be more pleasant to us.

Dear Vindicator:

Having promised to give you jottings along the route of my itinerary I write again.

From Fulton I went to Clinton. There Rev. J. B. Gooch, evangelist for the first district, had appointments for Monday and Tuesday nights, June 19 and 20, but Prof. James A. Tate, of Dyer, Tenn., our national secretary, coming along, Monday night was given to him.

Prof. Tate's lecture was a rare treat, and showed him a master in his line. As an impersonator of the drunkard he is unexcelled, and his quaint humor entertains while his irresistible logic convinces. Being a college man, he contrasted the educational value of the two institutions, the school and the saloon, and brought strongly before the minds of his hearers the depth of the mystery as to how men can support both.

On Tuesday night Rev. Gooch filled his appointment, and in a forcible manner showed the infamy and the growth of the drink traffic, and gave clearly the remedy for the evil.

These lectures will doubtless do good, though this is a hard territory to win for national prohibition, as all this Purchase country has had prohibition by local option for some twenty five years, except the cities of Paducah, Fulton and Wickliffe, and the law is fairly well enforced. "Tigers" rarely ever getting a foothold. Still there is considerable dissipation, the bootlegging being not unknown. But the most frequent source of conviviality is the "openings." These are liberally patronized by the young men, often minors, who club in together and order by the gallon whisky by express or bear by the keg, which is taken to a place appointed, a quiet grove perhaps, where they hold high carnival and become drunkards. Hence many good men are coming to see that the only salvation for the country depends on the idea of party prohibition.

After Clinton I came to Bardwell, from which place I am now writing. Here on last Saturday I attended the county prohibition convention, proceedings of which I have sent you. The ticket put out is an excellent one, and will, no doubt, win many votes to our party.

I learn Wickliffe has formed a strong prohibition club, and raised means for an active and protracted warfare against the saloon, both local and national. As I go there next I hope to be able to give you more definite information later on. Long live the Vindicator.

H. W. DAVIS.

June 19, 1901.

CARLISLE COUNTY PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

The Prohibitionists of Carlisle county met in convention at the court house in Bardwell, Saturday, June 15, 1901.

The convention was called to order at 2:30 p. m. and presided over by Dr. J. S. Petrie, county chairman.

A rousing address was delivered by Prof. J. B. Gooch, district evangelist.

Dr. Petrie, J. W. Blessing and C. R. Pile followed with appropriate remarks.

The following candidates were then nominated for the offices indicated, viz.:

For State Senator—District No. 2, Rev. J. D. Kirkpatrick, of McCracken county.

For Representative—Ballard and Carlisle counties, J. W. Blessing.

For County Judge—C. R. Pile.

For Superintendent of Schools—Mrs. I. Wilmer Blagg.

The following resolutions were then adopted, after which the convention adjourned sine die.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Prohibitionists of Carlisle county in convention assembled, this June 15, 1901, adopt the following resolutions, viz.:

Whereas, there is no question of government, whether local, state or national at all comparable in importance to the beverage liquor traffic, which is blighting our homes, destroying the peace and prosperity of our people, producing crime and sending thousands of our citizens to their graves every year, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we are opposed to the manufacture, sale, importation and exportation of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.

That we are opposed to the license system from the simple fact that crime cannot be made respectable, less heinous or destructive because revenue is received for that which produces it, nor can sin be condoned, evil be made good, nor wrong be made right by licensing them.

That we condemn the attempt of the war department in circulating broadcast over the country false statements regarding the effects of the repeal of the canteen law with the evident purpose of creating a sentiment in favor of reestablishing that abomination in our army.

That, though we are in the minority, we glory in the principles of our own party, invite the candid investigation of these principles by all fair-minded men and ask the support of our candidates by all who wish good, honest, efficient officers.

J. B. GOOCH, Ch'm.
J. W. BLESSING,
C. R. PILE,
Committee.

Col. T. B. Demaree, as has already been noted, has purchased a tour and will hold Prohibition camp meetings throughout the state. If you want a meeting held in your town or community write to Col. Demaree at Union Mills, Ky. He should be kept busy all the time as he will do us great good.

Strong Team for 1935 Seen As Cats Round Into Form After Two Weeks of Drills

Squad of Twenty Works Out
Under Coach Wynn in Spring Practice

Although basketball drills for women were held, Coach Wynn is satisfied that his Wildcats basketball squad is gradually rounding into shape after a little more than two weeks of spring drills. Coach Wynn announced that the first practice game in the spring will be held on Friday night.

Since there is no regular season for women basketball, the team will be kept in shape by playing exhibition games. The team will be kept in shape by playing exhibition games.

The regular season will be held in November. The team will be kept in shape by playing exhibition games.

We present our readers this week with a very spirited cut from Mr. C. W. Alexander's painting of Dr. L. Herr's (Forest Park, Lexington, Ky.) magnificent trotting stallion Mambrino King, the finest and handsomest stallion in America. Through the cut is an admirable one, it does not do justice to the horse, and it is no disparagement to the artist to say that no horse can convey a proper conception of the high beauty, style and dash of this extraordinary stallion. Mambrino King is a rich dark chestnut, with a size in the forehead, and the right hind leg white up over the pastern. He has a beautiful head and eye, beautifully arched neck, elegant and well defined shoulders, deep through the heart, great length, strong back and legs, great length from point of hip to the back and cleave to the ground, round feet and legs, with beautiful, smooth, level action. It is impossible with the pen to do justice to him, for there is an indescribable air of grandeur and beauty about him, that has to be seen to be appreciated. Taking all in all, for form, size, bone, muscle, disposition, gait and grandeur, he is the most beautiful specimen of a horse we have ever seen. Mambrino King is nine years old this spring, for Mambrino Patsen, own brother to Lady Throck, his dam by Alexander's Edwin Forrest, is dam by Birmingham; his dam by Burwood, his dam by Thompson; his dam by Imp. Bessett. It will be seen by the above pedigree that Mambrino King has a strong infusion of thoroughbred blood, his sire Mambrino Patsen being by Mambrino Child, sire by Gato, son of American Eclipse, and on his dam's side the other crosses except Edwin Forrest are thoroughbreds.

Mambrino King has no sound, but is a trotter, as he showed in an exhibition but last fall at the Lexington Fair, where he was awarded a half mile in company with Von Armin in 1:14. He was judged second to the half mile pole and repeated to exactly the same time without a break or the least lagging. His gait is smooth and frictionless, and impresses you at once that he can trot low in the track. We have since wondered why this splendid horse has not been taken through the grand trotting novel and damper. He certainly would be the great attraction of the year, and he would be worth more in the Association, and be greater attraction than the hippest team of fast horses.

Breeders in the country are in our judgment short sighted that they do not secure and breed Mambrino Patsen, blood mare.
